I sure hope you all made it out to the District 4 Horseshoe Golf Tournament and Picnic at the Dragons Lair in Holden, if you did not make it you need to start planning on next years. I will have a list of the winners in the next issue. Thank you all that did make it out and especially those that brought food, I don't think I have ever left a FORR event hungry.

Local 14 Crash Memorial Run is on June 6th, if it hasn't happened already, this is always a good time so come out and ride with them.

Local 1 Lime Run is on June 13th and you do not want to miss this one. They have several really nice KC Chiefs items that will be in a silent auction along with lots of other items. They will be doing the drawing for the 1998 autographed KC Chiefs football so if you haven't gotten your ticket yet you better hurry.

These two runs are always the first and second weekend in June so please try not to plan anything on those days and come support these locals.

District 4 Octoberfest

...will be here before you know it so make sure you have the first weekend in October scheduled. We will have the Friday Night Campfire Poker Run again and the Brooks Duo band will play on Saturday. We are still looking for vendors and sponsors so if you know of anyone interested, please send them our way.

Hello, it is with a sad and heavy heart that I regret to tell you that we lost Amy Allmon Memorial Day evening as the sun was setting. It was a beautiful purple sunset, her favorite color. The Good Lord welcomed her and she left surrounded by love and music. Her Celebration of Life will be held July 26th at Heart of God Fellowship 3720 N. Buckner-Tarsney Rd, Buckner, MO. Service at 4pm. Dinner to follow.

Additional sorrow caused by the sudden death of another dear friend and Local 5 member Mike Austain on April 28th. A loving family man. If you looked up nicest man in the dictionary you'd find Mike. Always had a friendly smile. Mike's Celebration of Life was held June 6th. It was a lovely reminder of what he and Stephanie have shared since high school.

I'm sorry to hear of passing of Dallas Chapman. Local 1 and Lifetime member She kept FORR organized and functioning smoothly for years. It took several people to replace her when she retired. Her Celebration of Life was held June 20th.

Another longtime Local 5 member Gene Lindsay passed to his reward. His Celebration of Life was held May 30th. Our thoughts and prayers go out to all the families. Too, too many good people slipping away.

Some good news to share i would like to welcome District 7, Southwest MO, comprised of Locals 3 and 11. Nice to learn District 4 is no longer alone. Look forward to working with you!

I want to close with a huge Thank You to Krista Weyer who has volunteered to keep the Freedom Press rolling and to Mark Capps who has volunteered to make sure our voices are still heard in DC. With gratitude to you both for stepping up. Look forward to working you as well.

~Thank you for your time, Rebecca

Our last meeting was held at Armstrong Outdoors in Fruitland with about a third of our membership in attendance. Thanks go to the good folks there for taking care of us. We discussed possible recipients of the Veterans appreciation award to be presented at the Christmas Dance. The date, and the band for that has already been secured.

Cathy has been working on some cool threads to keep us clothed and stylish that will involve some embroidery and some 'Groovy' colors. We continued to explore the possible formats of the Broomstick Pool Tournaments, but as there is no hurry at this time, we have not come to any conclusions.

The Veterans Run will not happen this year. We entertained some ideas of getting together and riding to the Veterans Home and presenting a donation. We also loosely talked about the possibility of making the trek to Bikefest at the Lake of the Ozarks.

We wanted to reconnect and share some exciting developments within our community. It has indeed been a while since our last official communication, and we appreciate your continued support and understanding

We are honored to announce a significant transition in our leadership. We extend a warm welcome to our new President, Daryl Maxey, who has graciously stepped into this pivotal role. Daryl takes the helm following the remarkable tenure of our long-serving President, Robert Reef Junior. We also take this moment to remember Robert Reef Junior and his beloved wife, Mindy, and may they ride the roads of heaven.

We've been busy making plans and continuing cherished traditions. Please note a change regarding our regular meetings: we now gather at the Long Branch Saloon in Essex, Missouri, on the last Saturday of each month at noon.  We warmly invite all members and interested individuals to join us there for camaraderie and discussions.

Our commitment to community outreach remains steadfast. We recently upheld our cherished tradition of delivering Easter baskets to the Osage Center in Poplar Bluff, providing 24 baskets to the young girls there. This heartwarming initiative has been a cornerstone of our community engagement for over three decades, and we are proud to continue this legacy of kindness and support.

Looking ahead, we are thrilled to announce a series of engaging and enjoyable events designed to bring us all together:
* Exciting Rides: Prepare for a calendar filled with invigorating group rides. Details on specific routes and dates will be announced soon, promising adventure for all.

* Bike Show: Get your prized machines ready! We're planning a spectacular bike show to celebrate the artistry and passion behind our motorcycles.

* Charity Bike Wash: Mark your calendars for a lively and memorable event! We will be hosting a fun-filled bikini bike wash on Saturday, July 25th, starting at 1:00 PM at the Long Branch Saloon in Essex, Missouri. This event is designed for enjoyment and community spirit, with everyone welcome to attend, enjoy the spectacle, and support our collective endeavors.

We are truly looking forward to reconnecting with you all at our upcoming meetings and events. Your participation and enthusiasm are what make our community so vibrant and special. Come join us for what promises to be a fantastic time!

Hello Motorcycle Riders, and Fans,

Welcome to spring where the mornings/nights are cold and evenings are warm. It is that time of year to get our rides serviced and ready for the road. Remember to use common sense and all the things you know to keep you and your passengers safe.

We here at Local 28 had our May meeting last night and got 3 or 4 things accomplished. Getting ready for the Mid American Freedom Rally, two shifts still not covered but I am sure they will be when time comes. Looking forward to seeing old friends and making new ones. I am sharing duties with my wife. We talked about the Buckhorn Blast this year we will have it on the 4th of July with hot dogs, refreshments, and the works. Bring your kids, outside toys and lawn chairs for a fun time. There will be a lot of fireworks. Best thing is it is free with a signed waiver. All activities will begin around 2:00. I won a door prize along with Debbie J, Vivan H, Flick, Brenda W, Mike B and I the 50/50 first time. The incentive award was one by my lovely wife. It would be great to see more members at the meeting. 15/64 members is not a good ratio. Loads of activities going on in the neighborhood, Uncommon Brotherhood, American Legion, CVMA and CMA. Happy Birthday to Mayra, Bill, and Me! Happy Anniversary to anyone married in June.

Historical Events for June: June 3, 1972 - Sally Jan Priesand was ordained a rabbi thus becoming the first woman rabbi in the U.S. She then became an assistant rabbi at the Stephen Wise Free Synagogue in New York City. June 6, 1978 - By vote of almost two to one, California voters approved Proposition 13, an amendment to the state constitution severely limiting property tax rates. June 25, 1990 - The U.S. Supreme Court ruled (5-4) that it was unconstitutional for any state to require, without providing other options, a minor to notify both parents before obtaining an abortion. June 26, 1945 - The United Nations Charter was signed in San Francisco by 50 nations. The Charter was ratified on October 24, 1945.

"When I'm riding my motorcycle, I'm glad to be alive. When I stop riding my motorcycle, I'm glad to be alive." – Neil Peart

Shake a Veterans hand and let them know you are proud to do so. Keep the wind and sun to your back, all wheels on the road and God as your co-pilot. God Bless the USA.

"No one who accomplished things could expect to avoid mistakes. Only those who did nothing made no mistakes."

The Motorcycle Riders Foundation provides leadership in our Nation's Capital for States' Motorcyclists' Rights Organizations as well as motorcycle clubs and individual riders. The MRF is committed to being a national advocate for the advancement of motorcycling and its associated lifestyle.

As the new Missouri MRF Rep, I would like to thank everyone for allowing me to assume this position.

I would like to start off by thanking Amy for all her support over the years, Respect and Love to you. I have not had the chance to talk to Amy in depth about my responsibilities as MRF, however I have good support from the leadership within the MRF.

I am not looking to re-invent the wheel but take a different approach to the position. Membership is the primary focus, as with all MROs, membership is key in moving legislation. We need to support each other in our state and federal legislation by showing up in person, sending an email, or making a phone call. What we do influences all motorcycle riders. I have a state roster for the membership, if you do not know where you stand, please reach out to me and we will figure it out together.

Thank You for taking the effort to support FORR and MRF.

Ford BlueCruise Investigated By NTSB

Recent findings from the National Transportation Safety Board (NTSB) underscore a growing concern for motorcyclists navigating an increasingly automated roadway. In two fatal crashes involving Ford's BlueCruise hands-free driving system, federal investigators pointed to a dangerous combination of driver overreliance and technological limitations resulting in the loss of three lives.

According to the NTSB, the system failed to properly detect and respond to real-world conditions, including the presence of a stationary vehicle and excessive speed in a work zone. Just as troubling, drivers placed too much trust in the technology and failed to remain engaged behind the wheel.

For the Motorcycle Riders Foundation (MRF), this comes as no surprise.

For more than a decade, the MRF has raised concerns in Washington, D.C., about how emerging vehicle technologies, especially automated and semi-autonomous systems, interact with motorcycles. Riders know all too well that motorcycles are already underdetected by human drivers. When automation is layered on top of that reality, the risks only increase.

While much of the conversation around autonomous vehicles focuses on reducing fatalities, these incidents highlight a critical gap: technology that doesn't fully account for all road users, including motorcyclists, can create new and unforeseen dangers.

That's why events like next month's Bikers Inside the Beltway are so important.

This annual grassroots lobby event provides a vital opportunity for riders from across the country to bring real-world concerns directly to lawmakers and regulators. As federal agencies consider new standards for automated driving systems, it is essential that the motorcycling community has a seat at the table.

The MRF will continue to advocate for policies that ensure motorcycles are not an afterthought in the development and deployment of new vehicle technologies. Safety must mean safety for everyone on the road.

Because when it comes to automation, awareness isn't optional and neither is our voice.

An Exodus On Capitol Hill

According to new reporting, a remarkable 58 members of the U.S. House have already announced they will not seek reelection ahead of the 2026 midterms. That's more than one in eight lawmakers, an extraordinary level of turnover this far out from Election Day, and the highest in more than a decade. Additional vacancies will be created by those lawmakers leaving due to scandals or death. It's not just the number that stands out. It's the timing, the pace, and the implications.

Members are leaving earlier than usual, some stepping away after long careers, while others chase new opportunities in the Senate or governors' mansions. Redistricting has reshaped political maps, making some districts unfamiliar or unwinnable. And beneath it all is a broader trend, an aging Congress where more lawmakers are simply deciding it's time to go home.

Even influential figures like Sam Graves, a key player on transportation policy, are heading for the exits. With each departure, decades of experience and carefully built relationships leave with them.

For most Americans, this kind of turnover might feel like just another political storyline. But for the Motorcycle Riders Foundation (MRF) and the millions of riders it represents, it's something much more consequential.

Because in Washington, relationships are everything.

Over the years, motorcyclists have worked hard to build a network of lawmakers who understand that riders are not just another category of road user. They are a distinct part of the transportation ecosystem, with unique safety concerns and policy needs. Those relationships don't happen by accident, they are built meeting by meeting, conversation by conversation, often over the course of many years.

Now, many of those relationships are disappearing.

In their place will be a new class of lawmakers, men and women who may have never considered how infrastructure design affects a rider, or how emerging vehicle technologies interact with motorcycles, or why federal policy must account for those differences. They won't come to Washington with that knowledge. They will have to learn it.

Moments of high turnover are rare, but when they come, they offer a chance to shape the conversation from the very beginning. Before priorities are set. Before assumptions take hold. Before other voices fill the void.

That is why this year's Bikers Inside the Beltway carries a different kind of weight.

This isn't just another fly-in. It's not just another round of meetings. It is, in many ways, a reset.

When riders walk the halls of Congress during Bikers Inside the Beltway, they won't just be reinforcing old relationships, they will be introducing themselves to the future of Congress. They will be sitting down with lawmakers who are still forming their views, still deciding which issues matter, still learning who to trust.

Those first impressions matter. In many cases, they last.

CONT'D

As lawmakers retire, those who stay will shape transportation policy in the years ahead. This wave of retirements signals the end of one era on Capitol Hill. For motorcyclists, it also marks the beginning of another.

The question isn't whether Congress will change, that is already happening. The question is whether riders will be part of that change from the start.

Because in a year like this, showing up isn't just important. It's everything.

Washington Is Deciding You Need To Be There Bikers Inside the Beltway

The definition of a motorcycle is being challenged right now - and silence will be taken as consent.

The Motorcycle Riders Foundation is actively working to close the loophole - H.R. 3385 - that allows steering-wheel-equipped autocycles to hide under a motorcycle definition that was never meant for them.

Let's be clear. Showing up for Bikers Inside the Beltway increases the chance of passage.

Let's be doubly clear: Removing a wheel from a small car does not make it a motorcycle.

A motorcycle is straddled.
It has handlebars.
It requires balance.
It demands skill.

When definitions change, regulations follow. When regulations shift, riders lose ground.

This isn't theoretical. This is policy being shaped in real time - and if we're in the room they're listening to us.

Now is the moment. Not later. Not next year. Now.

Update On The E15 Debate

Capitol Hill is once again the battleground for a growing debate over the future of America's fuel supply, this time centered on whether to allow the year-round sale of E15 (a gasoline blend containing 15% ethanol) nationwide.

CONT'D

Currently, federal regulations restrict the sale of E15 during the summer months due to concerns related to emissions. However, in recent years, several states have been granted waivers or special allowances to permit the year-round sale of E15. What was once a limited exception is now being used as the foundation for a broader legislative push in Congress to make permanent, nationwide access to E15 a reality.

ATTENTION

E15

Up to 15% ethanol

Use only in

- 2001 and newer passenger vehicles
- Flex-fuel vehicles

Don't use in other vehicles, boats or gasoline-powered equipment, It may cause damage and is prohibited by federal law.

Supporters of the change point to potential cost savings at the pump and benefits for domestic ethanol producers. But for motorcyclists, the issue is far more complicated and concerning.

Most motorcycles on the road today are designed and tested to run on E10 fuel, a gasoline blend containing 10% ethanol. Higher ethanol blends, including E15, are not approved for use in many motorcycles and small-engine vehicles. The risks are well-documented: increased wear on engine components, fuel system damage, and in some cases, manufacturer warranties voided.

These are why the Motorcycle Riders Foundation (MRF) is actively engaged in this fight.

A central pillar of the MRF's legislative agenda is ensuring the continued, widespread availability of E10 fuel. As Congress considers expanding E15 sales, the MRF is working to make sure that motorcyclists are not pushed to the margins of the marketplace.

The concern is straightforward: as E15 becomes more prevalent, E10 could become harder to find. Without proper safeguards, riders may face fewer fueling options or an increased risk of inadvertently using incompatible fuel.

The MRF is urging lawmakers to take a balanced approach. Any legislation expanding E15 must also include provisions that guarantee access to E10, improve pump labeling, and prioritize consumer awareness, especially for those operating vehicles not designed for higher ethanol blends.
